

MARK PALMER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Administered by the Highlands Seminole Club

The late Mark Palmer graduated from FSU in 1982 and soon after helped establish and promote the Highlands Seminole Club. He served as President several times and continued to serve on the Board of Directors until his death in August of 2006. Mark was a member of the Seminole Boosters and the FSU Alumni Association. Many of Mark's friends and family members created a scholarship fund in his honor with the hope that the recipients of future awards would benefit from an education at FSU and may acquire Mark's joy of life and pride in being a Seminole.
