Important NCAA Rules

Under NCAA recruiting rules, Florida State University is not permitted to provide prospective student-athletes (defined as any 9-12 grade student), his or her family or educational institution with any extra benefit such as a gift, monetary benefit or tickets. Accordingly, any donation by the Florida State Department of Athletics is made subject to the following conditions:

- The donated/autographed item(s) may not be given or sold at a discount or auctioned to any prospective student-athlete.
- The proceeds generated from the donated/autographed item(s) may not be used to benefit or assist any high school or any local sports program composed of students in 9-12 grade.
- The donated/autographed item(s) must be used for the charitable purpose stated above and may not be used to influence a prospective student-athlete to attend Florida State University.
