2020 Seminole Club of the Rockies Scholarship Application Essay Questions

Vires, Artes, Mores is the School's Motto and it takes its name from the Latin words for strength, skill and character which is also found in the university seal. As a student and even an alumni, these three virtues are what each Florida State Seminole should exhibit and represent within their student body, workplace and their community as they interact to make this world a better place. For the questions below, please provide some insights in how you have exhibited, acted or have positioned yourself to follow these virtues in your experiences at Florida State University.

Please provide your answer in the form of a narrative of how you did something or planned to do something as a student, student intern, Campus organization leader, Participant in a campus cause, activity outside of Florida State working with a community service or charity organization or actions to support a friend or family member.

Responses are limited to 500 words. Please save your responses in a word document and include with your application.

- 1.) Strength – What is a characteristic or experience you don't possess now but hope to leave FSU with that will make you a stronger individual?
- 2.) Skill – Explain the importance of your field of study (major) in today's society.
- 3.) Character – During your time as a student at FSU, who has been your biggest influence and why? How has this person helped you to succeed?

The following questions are reflective of your time and experience at Florida State University

- 4.) Florida State prides itself on their yearly traditions that root back to its founding in 1851. During your time at FSU, what has been your favorite tradition or event you have participated in?
- 5.) The history of the Seminole Tribe in Florida is the story of noble, brave, courageous, strong and determined people who struggled to successfully preserve their culture in the state. We have a special relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida to be able to share their culture and symbols with all of our students and alumni. During your time at Florida State, what does being a Seminole mean to you and how do you exude those characteristics in your daily life as a current student?
